Happy Anniversary, Phillip Brown!

Today Phillip Brown is celebrating twenty-eight years of service at Huguenot Road Baptist Church. We are very fortunate that he has shared his many talents and gifts with us throughout this amazing period. As Associate Pastor for Worship, Music, and College Ministries, he provides leadership for our worship services and all of our choirs and instrumental groups, including our Chancel Choir, children's and youth choirs, orchestra, handbells, etc. and the evolving technology behind all of these. In the past few years, he has also taken on our college ministries. Please join the Personnel Team in thanking him for his dedication and outstanding work.

Don't Be Left Out!

Wednesday, February 12, from 2:00—9:00pm, LifeTouch will be with us to capture member's portraits for a forthcoming pictorial directory. If you were not able to participate in our initial sessions, this is your chance! In order to register, please see a communication team member in the commons today or register by clicking the link on our website homepage.

Join the Valentine Brigade!

Stop by the table in the Commons after Bible Study this morning to pick up a bag of cheer, then simply deliver that bag to the recipient whose name is attached to the bag. Thanks for loving ALL HRBC's members and family!

Beth Reddish Wright, Director of Camp Alkulana, at HRBC Feb. 16

Camp Alkulana, one of our local ministry partners, has been in continuous operation since it began in 1915. It is the oldest camp in Virginia, offering an affordable summer camp experience to Richmond area children who are eligible for free and reduced lunch at school. On Sunday February 16, Beth Reddish Wright, Camp Director, will speak in both worship services. She will be joined by our own Kate Wakeland and a few campers/counselors. Thank you for your generous support and prayer for Camp Alkulana. We look forward to hearing from Beth and her team as they lead us in worship!
