Winter Lecture Series Continues

Join us this Wednesday at 6:15 pm as Dr. Art Wright and Dr. Mark Bidle continue to lead our 2020 Winter Lecture Series. How we disagree and how we treat those with whom we disagree says a lot about who we are and what we believe. With political turmoil boiling over and partisanship at an all time high, does the Church's witness still offer the world an alternative? Or have we succumbed to the same temptations that have led our nation to its current standoff? The more we listen to others, the more we know them, understand them, and can love them as Christ would have us.

Please Pray for Our High School Students

Friday, January 17, a group of high school students will join other Virginia students in Charlottesville for Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Virginia's Winter Summit. The theme our students will explore is, "How do we connect with injustice around us?" We invite you to pray that these students would have tangible experiences of God's grace and mercy at work in the world and for safe places to discern and process the activities they will participate in. We are very excited about this weekend and can't wait to share our stories with you when we return.

There are three different ways you can get involved: we have a team going to Hope Tree homes in Richmond to rake leaves and attend to physical needs on their property and two teams staying here at HRBC. One team will coordinate lunch and the other team will host our friends from Hope Tree for a morning of games and activities. Visit hrbcrichmond.org/my-hrbc/ to sign up today!
