The position was formerly "Associate Pastor for Children's Ministries." The newly created position is "Associate Pastor for Children and Family Ministries." Amanda is in her tenth year of ministry here and we are thankful for her continued vision and leadership. Please pray for Amanda and her teams as they begin this new journey!

- Monday Jan. 22, 12pm - Service of Prayer at Bon Air Christian

Martin Luther King Day of Service - Church Office Closed

In keeping with Dr. King's example of Christian service to all people, the office will be closed on January 15 so our staff can be in our community, serving in Christ's name. This year, we will serve with Wesley Garrett at South Richmond Baptist Center. If you would like to join us, contact the church office (272.2072).

Wednesday Evenings In January

Each Wednesday in January, our congregation will be exploring the biblical concept of Beloved Community—the vision of God's creation living under God's authority and treating one another as full citizens of God's Kingdom, here on earth. We will be joined by professors from BTSR who will lead us to further consider God's vision of Beloved Community.

Woe to the Ties that Break: Lapses of Love in the Community of the Beloved Disciple
- 1/17 Dr. Mark Biddle
