What Does it Take to Grow Your Faith?

Culture inundates us every day, reinforcing its values. Like Christ, we are called to be counter-cultural in the way we think, live and treat others.

The way of Jesus is life-giving. But since it is so different than the culture we live in, following in the way of Jesus takes a lot of encouragement and practice.

Small groups at HRBC offers a discipleship community for those who are new to following Jesus and those who have been on the road for some time. This fall, there are opportunities in which you can connect with a group in order to learn about, be encouraged by, and build friendships around our common commitment to Jesus.

Wednesday Evenings

Wednesday evenings at HRBC are a time to pause during the week in order to gather for fellowship, laughter, Bible study and encouragement. There is something for every age, no matter your place in the journey of faith.

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God – what is good and acceptable and perfect.”

Fellowship Dinner

Fellowship Dinners are served from 5:30 – 6:15 pm in the church Family Life Center. Meals are provided by The Dirty Apron Catering Group and are healthy, delicious and affordable. Join friends and family around the table before heading off to a small group study. Reservations are accepted through Monday at noon and are $7.00 per adult and $24.00 per family. The dining area is open until 6:30.

A Character Study of David: An in-depth look at “the man after God’s own heart.” This group will study the life of David; both his faithfulness and failures. The Bible is the primary text. Led by David Cottrell, Sr. Room 122 and 123

Seamless: Understanding the Bible as One Complete Study: Seamless covers the people, places, and promises of the Bible, showing participants how the entire Bible - from Genesis through Revelation - connects as one beautiful, seamless thread. A study for women led by Norma Pohle. Room 125
