HRBC Prayer Shawl Ministry

Our HRBC Prayer Shawl Ministry had their first meeting October 18, 2008. The ministry started with a small group of ladies who were interested in sharing God's love in a special way. Some made prayer shawls and taught others, helping them learn to knit or crochet. Others supported through prayers, delivery of shawls, and encouraged the group. Since May 2009, the Prayer Shawl Ministry has been a part of the Parent/Child Dedications in worship, when we give each family a special prayer shawl.

Over the years the ministry has touched many individuals of all ages, both in our church family and in other states. Recipients have been identified through requests of church members. It is amazing to see the growth and impact of our HRBC members who have noticed those needing a special hug and a beautiful shawl to remind them of God's love. A Prayer Shawl meeting will be held at HRBC on Feb. 25th from 2:00-4:00 pm in room 125. If you are interested in joining this special ministry of sharing God's love in a unique way, have questions, or just want to learn more, please join us.
