Happy Anniversary, Vince Gray - August 17

We are very grateful for Vince Gray who has served HRBC as our custodian for the past ten years. He is constantly working to ensure that our facilities are clean and inviting for the numerous church and community events that are held within our walls. He is also responsible for the set-up of every space multiple times each week. He does all of this with a smile on his face and in his heart. Please join the Personnel Team in thanking him for a job very well done!

Reams Road Mission Sunday

This summer, we have been praying for our families, neighbors and faculty at Reams Road Elementary School as they face two years displacement to A.M. Davis Elementary School campus while a new Reams Road building is constructed. On Sunday, August 25, we invite you to participate in a tangible way of loving this community during a difficult transition. Bible study classes, families and individuals are encouraged to attend the Awakening worship service, then caravan to the A.M. Davis campus for a prayer walk around the campus, projects to prepare rooms for school, and creation of banners of encouragement. We will conclude with a time of dedication and a picnic. Bible study and Classic Worship will continue as scheduled.
