

Adult Bible Study Classes 2019

Sunday Mornings—9:45 am

Agape

Room 116 & 117

Teachers: Ray and Martha Parker

This class is for married or single adults over age 55 who describe themselves as participators or seekers and enjoy discussion of biblical material. All adults are welcome.

Betty Vaughan

Room 103

Teachers: Liz Bass

This class is for senior adult women. Class members enjoy the caring, sharing, and friendly fellowship as well as excellent Bible teaching. In addition to weekly Bible study, class members meet regularly for fellowship and look forward to a “major Christmas party.”

Paul Cousins

Room 105

Teacher: Tom Jarvis, Joe Ralcewicz

This class for senior adult men features a skilled Bible teacher and many members with biblical knowledge. Class members enjoy regular fellowships, and they attend Wednesday night Bible study.

Team Class

Room 121

Teacher: Nancy Page

Team is a co-ed class for those age 60 and older. The class features strong Bible teaching and good fellowship. If you desire to learn in a warm and caring fellowship, try the Team class.

Thursday Night LIFE Community Group

Commons

Teacher: Laura Wert

This class is for adults who are unable to attend a Sunday morning LIFE community group due to job commitment, church commitment, or are interested in an alternative learning time. This group will meet at 6:30 pm each Thursday evening.

At Huguenot Road Baptist Church, we believe that disciples are grown through Bible study and interaction with other believers. That's why we encourage you to participate in one of our Bible studies every Sunday morning. We invite you to share in LIFE together. The acronym stands for:

L—Loving Relationships
I—Intentional Caring
F—Faith Formation
E—Empowered for Ministry

In this brochure, you will find information to help you choose a Bible study class that is right for you. Please note there are multiple options for each age group, and you are welcome to try different communities before deciding which one is right for you. For more information about adult study opportunities, please contact our Associate Pastor for Discipleship, Matthew Hensley: 804-272-2072, matthew@hrbcrichmond.org.

Young Adults

Teacher: Elizabeth Parsons

For young adults just getting started on their own, both single and married. This class explores in depth a book of the Bible. It also encourages community and connectivity throughout the week.

Room 125College Class

During the summer and college breaks, a group of 18-23 year olds meet to dig into God's word to consider how God is working in the lives of college age students. For the latest, see www.hrbcrichmond.org/ministries/college.

Church ParlorGenesis

Teacher: Wilton Johns and Laura Wert

A class for young couples. Most participants have young children or are thinking about starting a family. The class is discussion based versus a pure lecture style. If you are interested in thought provoking discussion and Christian fellowship please come join us as we explore this new, totally different time in your lives.

Room 209Discovery

Teachers: Sandra Lynch and Norma Pohle

This coed class is for median age adults who desire good fellowship and discussions oriented Bible study. Experienced leaders and strong connections are hallmarks of this class.

Room 207JOY (Just Older Youth)

Teacher: Carol Ashworth and Kevin Patrick

This co-ed class is for anyone interested in in-depth Bible study. Class members include single and married adults. The class members search for the core of Christianity using open discussion and application of scripture to the life of a disciple.

Room 208Bible Navigators

Teacher: Andy Sasser

Literature: In-depth focus on a book in the Bible per quarter
The Bible Navigators is a co-ed class that walks through a different book of the Bible each quarter of the year. Facilitated by a lead teacher, this class is prepared to ask deeper questions of the text so as to be fully open to the Holy Spirit's leadership in interpreting the scripture for today.

Room 200Open Arms

Teacher: David Cottrell

Our class focus is on learning and understanding the lessons of the Bible. We take time to discuss issues of importance that arise in our lives, and use this as a group support for those with a special need.

Room 203Serendipity

Teacher: Eric Millirons

This class consists of median age adults who enjoy exploring the scriptures in depth. Participants enjoy spending time together and sharing out of their experiences. The class loves to welcome new members.

Room 202Spirit of Lydia

Teacher: Beth Torres

Spirit of Lydia is a diverse class of women, single and married, ages 30 - 60. Besides enjoying rich fellowship, class members enjoy quality Bible study and engage together in mission projects.

Room 206Friendship

Teachers: Richard Martin

Members of this co-ed median age adult class have children from elementary to college age. Members are friendly and supportive, and they enjoy laughter in their lively, informal, Bible-based discussions.

Room 204Discovering the Depths

Teacher: Eng Heah

This is a scripture-based study of current Christian books by those who are eager to discover a more meaningful application of the gospel. Participants are expected to read and reflect each week in preparation for class discussions. Openness to differing perspectives and interpretations is a must.

Room 102Happy Clay

Teacher: Sue Hurley

Single or married women, age 50 and over, who "want to know the Lord in the company of loving and caring women." Members of this class are deeply involved in other church activities and maintain close contact with one another. The class is strengthened by socials, monthly class meetings, challenging Bible study, ministry projects, and prayer.

Room 122 & 123Koinonia

This class is for men, age 50 and over. Koinonia is a very diverse class and participants enjoy lively interaction and discussions. If you are a man who desires in-depth Bible study, this class is for you.

Room 104