Winter Lecture Series—Learning to Listen

Beginning Wednesday, January 8, we will welcome Dr. Art Wright and Dr. Mark Biddle to lead our 2020 Winter Lecture Series. How we disagree and how we treat those with whom we disagree says a lot about who we are and what we believe. With political turmoil boiling over and partisanship at an all time high, does the Church’s witness still offer the world an alternative? Or have we succumbed to the same temptations that have led our nation to its current standoff?

On January 8 and 15, Dr. Art Wright, professor of New Testament, will give us instructive Biblical examples that reveal our problem is not a new one. How did Jesus handle conflict? Did the early church ever disagree? How did they deal with division?

On January 22 and 29, Dr. Mark Biddle, professor of Old Testament, will offer two current case studies in which people disagree – public support of mass transit in Richmond, and childhood incarceration – and offer a way forward in which Christians can listen to one another and get to what is at the heart of an issue.

The more we listen to others, the more we know them, understand them, and can love them as Christ would have us to.

Leadership Training Kick-off

Next Sunday, after Classic Worship, all ministry teams will be gathering for lunch in the Family Life Center to receive information on how each team should communicate and operate in the coming year. Sponsored by the Membership Development and Mobilization Team, participants will also receive guidance in best practices and each team will have a few minutes to meet and plan their first steps. To be included, please register with your team leader by the end of today!
