“That Warm and Fuzzy Feeling”

Kate Wakeland, Preacher

February 25, 2024

Key Verse: "And now I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. If you have love for one another, then everyone will know that you are my disciples." (John 13:34-35)

Big Idea: We are called to love Jesus, even when it isn't easy.

1. Choose KINDNESS.
2. We don't get to CHOOSE OUR NEIGHBOR.
3. Love without an AGENDA.

Introduction of Kate Wakeland

Each February/March, Baptist Women in Ministry invites like-minded congregations to advocate for and encourage women in ministry. One of the ways we have participated is the BWIM Month of Preaching. We are grateful to announce that Kate Wakeland is our preacher here at HRBC. Her sermon text is John 13:34-35 and is titled, "That Warm, Fuzzy Feeling."

Kate grew up right at Huguenot Road Baptist Church and has recently stepped into her new role- helping to lead the Family Ministry! Kyara Kelley-Jones leads our Family Ministries and works with children while Kate works with our youth. Kate also works year-round for Camp Alkulana, helping to coordinate school year programming and fundraising efforts. She spends her afternoons babysitting two sweet girls, whom she loves spending time with. Kate is pursuing a Social Work degree, and is currently a student at Brightpoint Community College. She is thankful for all of the female ministers in her life who have worked hard to show her that women can do anything, including preach!
