“When the Donkey Makes More Sense Than You”

Part 2: “Holy Misadventures: When Life Doesn’t Go as Planned”

Numbers 22:1-35

June 22, 2025

By Dr. Bob Lee

Theme: Sometimes what seems like an interruption is actually divine redirection.

- 1. Listen for God in unexpected places. God may use the surprising, the small, or even the absurd to get our attention.
- 2. Pause before pushing forward. When obstacles appear, ask if God is redirecting or protecting you.
- 3. Check your motives, not just your movement. Like Balaam, it’s possible to obey outwardly but be misaligned inwardly.
- 4. Be open to correction. Humility opens our eyes to God’s truth—even if it comes from a donkey.

Reflection

- Where might God be trying to get your attention right now?
- What “donkey moment” in your life might actually be divine redirection?

Monday’s Prayer

Lord, help me slow down and listen for Your voice, especially in unexpected places. Open my eyes and align my heart with Your will this week.
