

“Help Comes from the Lord” | Psalm 121

Reflection Questions:

1. When anxiety or uncertainty rises, where am I most tempted to look for help instead of the Lord?
2. What past moment in my life could serve as an “Ebenezer” – a reminder that God has already helped me?
3. How does knowing that the Lord never sleeps or slumbers change the way I face this coming week?

Looking forward to next week...

Psalm 122

Worship is more than attendance - the habit of gathering shapes our souls and connects us to God and one another.

Monday Prayer:

Lord God,

You are our help and our keeper, the One who watches over our coming and going.

Forgive us for the hills we have trusted instead of You. Help us remember how You have carried us thus far and teach us to rest in Your faithful care today.

Amen.

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Welcome to HRBC! We gather each week trusting that God meets us, strengthens us, and guides us in our journey of faith.

Today we reflect on Psalm 121, a psalm that lifts our eyes to the One who keeps us. When anxiety rises, this passage reminds us that our help does not come from our own striving but from the Lord who watches over us with unfailing care.

Blessings in Christ,
Pastor Bob Lee
