

How We Walk Through the Wilderness | Matthew 4:1-11

- Store Scripture in your heart.
- Live it out faithfully.
- Keep your eyes on God and trust Him completely.
- Remember your calling - you are the light of the world.
- Say “No” to voices that distract, deceive, and derail.

For Reflection...

Where am I most vulnerable - hungry, angry, lonely, or tired?

Which voice am I listening to this week?

Following God does not remove temptation - it reveals where our trust lies.

Looking forward to next week...

“Real Questions”

Part 2 of Get Real: Can God Really...?
by Rev. Dr. Bob Lee
John 3:1-17

God welcomes honest questions and uses them to move us from surface belief to transformed life.

Monday Prayer:

Gracious God, as we begin this week, steady our hearts in You. When we are hungry, angry, lonely, or tired, guard us from temptation and anchor us in Your Word. Remind us that we are Your beloved children. Strengthen us to trust You, worship You alone, and walk faithfully in every trial.
In Jesus’ name. Amen.

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Welcome to Huguenot Road Baptist Church. As we enter the season of Lent, we begin a journey of honest reflection, renewed trust, and deeper dependence on God.

Today we launch our new series, "Get Real: Can God Really...?" We begin in the wilderness with Jesus' temptation. Following God does not remove struggle—it reveals where our trust truly rests. In moments of testing, we discover that God's Word sustains us and God's Presence steadies us.

Walking with you this season,
Pastor Bob Lee
