

1. What “grave clothes” or bindings in your life need to be released?

2. Who has carried your burdens to Jesus?

3. How does Jesus’ empathy in grief change the way we experience loss?

4. How might God help us speak resurrection life to others?

Looking forward to next week...

“Real Empathy”

Part 6 of Get Real: Can God Really...?
by Rev. Dr. Bob Lee
Matthew 21:1-11

Jesus chooses the path of suffering love, entering Jerusalem fully aware of the cost for our sake.

Monday Prayer:

Sovereign and Suffering God,
As we name the grave clothes that bind our hearts, we ask You to set us free like Lazarus. Unwrap our hearts with Your healing touch. Restore hope, renew strength, and remind us that You are always present. May we walk in freedom, courage, and the abundant life You promise in Christ.
Amen.

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Welcome to worship. As we continue our Lenten journey, we are reminded that God's power is not distant—it speaks into our present reality.

In the story of Lazarus, Jesus calls life out of death and hope out of despair. Resurrection is not only a future promise; it begins wherever Christ's voice frees us from what binds us. We gather trusting that His Word still brings life.

Faithfully,
Pastor Bob Lee
