

SERMONNOTES:

Three Marks of Jesus' Voice | John 10:1-10

1. Personal – “He calls his own sheep by name.” (v. 3)

What does it mean for me to be known by Christ?

2. Relational – “[The sheep] know his voice.” (v. 4)

What am I doing and/or learning to recognize His voice?

3. Directional – “He leads them out.” (v. 3)

Where is Christ leading me right now?

Monday Prayer:

Good and Gracious Shepherd,
In the midst of so many voices, help us to hear Yours clearly. Lead us in paths that bring abundant life in You. Teach us to trust Your voice and follow where You lead. And shape us into people who walk together in Your way.
Amen.

Looking forward to next week...

“The Born Again Identity: A Plan to Change the World”

by Rev. Dr. Bob Lee | John 3:3, 16-17

Being born again is not about starting over on our own - it is about receiving new life from God that changes who we are from the inside out.

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

We're grateful you've chosen to worship with us today! In a world marked by uncertainty and many competing voices, it can be difficult to know what—and who—to trust.

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, still calls His people by name and leads them into life. As we also celebrate a special day in the life of our church, we are reminded that Christ not only meets us in our fear but leads us forward together by His voice.

In Him,
Pastor Bob Lee
