Sermon Title: “Not Alone: Raising the Next Generation Together”

by Rev. Dr. Bob Lee

Text: Acts 17:22-31

Creative Theme: In a world of constant, competing voices, God calls to anchor our identity in Him and raise the next generation together in His truth.

=====

Questions for Reflection | Acts 17:22-31

For You:

Where do you feel the pull of competing voices right now—and how can you make space this week to hear God’s voice?

For You & Your Family:

Where do you feel alone?

Who might God be inviting you to walk with—or to walk alongside?]

For Our Church:

How can we be a community where no one walks alone?

Who is one person or family you can encourage this week?]

Monday Prayer

Lord, Thank You that You are never far from us,
even in the noise and confusion of life.
Remind us this week that we are not alone.
Strengthen families, encourage weary hearts,
and draw the next generation to You.
Anchor our identity in Christ above every competing voice.
In Jesus’ name, Amen.
