THE WORSHIP OF GOD

June 21, 2026, 10:30 am
Father's Day

On this Father's Day, we give thanks for those who have guided, supported, and shaped our lives in quiet and meaningful ways. Today we begin a short series titled CALLED TO THE FIELD, reflecting on God's invitation to step into His purposes. In the story of the prodigal son, we are reminded that God is always watching, always waiting, and always ready to welcome us home. Wherever you find yourself today, there is an open invitation to return and be received with grace. - Grace and peace, Pastor Bob Lee

Offertory Anthem	"Find Us Faithful"	Mohr/Allen

We're pilgrims on the journey of the narrow road, And those who've gone before us line the way.
Cheering on the faithful, encouraging the weary, Their lives a stirring testament to God's sustaining grace.
Surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, Let us run the race not only for the prize.
But as those who've gone before us, Let us leave to those behind us the heritage of faithfulness passed on through godly lives.

Oh, may all who come behind us find us faithful; May the fire of our devotion light their way.
May the footprints that we leave lead them to believe; And the lives we live inspire them to obey.
Oh, may all who come behind us find us faithful.

After all our hopes and dreams have come and gone, And our children sift through all we've left behind;
May the clues that they discover, and the memories they uncover Become the light that leads them to the road we each must find.

Message	"If You Build it" Part 1 of Called to the Field	Rev. Dr. Bob Lee

Luke 15:11-24 (Pew Bible pg. 740)

11 Jesus continued: "There was a man who had two sons. 12 The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.
13 "Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living. 14 After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. 15 So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. 16 He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.
17 "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death! 18 I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.' 20 So he got up and went to his father.
"But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.
21 "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' 22 "But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. 23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate. 24 For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate."
