THE WORSHIP OF GOD

August 2, 2026, 10:30 am

It's a Beautiful Day at HRBC!

As we begin a new series today, we turn our attention to a reality we all experience but do not always name—change. And with change often comes loss. Life is not always what it once was, yet God remains faithful. As we worship this morning, may we rediscover God's faithfulness—even in unfamiliar seasons. May we remember that we worship the One who does not change and who meets us with grace in every season.

- In Christ's care, Pastor Bob Lee

The flowers are given today in honor of Martha and Ray Parker's 63rd Wedding Anniversary by their children, Beth Parker, Jeff & Terry Parker.

Offertory Anthem	"Then Sings My Soul"	Hine/McDonald

O Lord, my God! when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, Thy pow'r thro'out the universe displayed.
When thro' the woods and forest glades I wander, and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees, when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur, and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee: how great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee: how great Thou art, how great Thou art, how great Thou art!
And when I think that God, His Son not sparing, sent Him to die I scarce can take it in, that on the Cross, my burden gladly bearing, He bled and died to take away my sin.
When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim, "My God, how great Thou art!"
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee: how great Thou art, how great Thou art, how great Thou art!

Part 1 of Faithfulness in Seasons of Loss and Change

Ecclesiastes 3:1-7 (Pew Bible pg. 473)

[1]There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
[2] a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot,
[3] a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
[4] a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance,
[5] a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
[6] a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away,
[7] a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak,

Sermon Notes: When Change Feels Like Loss | Ecclesiastes 3:1-7

For Reflection: To live is to face inevitable change. "People do not resist change, per se. People resist loss."—Heifetz & Linsky, Leadership on the Line

- Where are you experiencing change that feels like loss?
- What are you grieving that others may not see?
- Where do you feel caught between what was and what is not yet?
- Can you name both your gratitude and your sorrow honestly before God?

Compline Prayer (from the Book of Common Prayer)

Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who work, or watch, or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend the sick, Lord Christ; give rest to the weary, bless the dying, soothe the suffering, pity the afflicted, shield the joyous; and all for Your Love's sake. Amen.

This Week's Memory Verse Challenge...

Psalm 56:3
"When I am afraid, I will trust in You."

Our thanks and appreciation to Michelle Graham for leading our music today!**

Looking forward to next week...
