Monday Prayer (From The Prayer of St. Francis; James 1:19)
Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace . . .
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love.
Help me to be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.
Amen.

Looking forward to next week…

"Telling the Truth About What We've Lost"
Part 3 of Faithfulness in Seasons of Loss and Change
by Rev. Dr. Bob Lee | Psalm 13
Often, we need permission to grieve. Scripture gives permission for biblical lament.

In Memoriam

Jim Morris (Laura), long-time member of HRBC, passed away on July 30, 2026.
Visitation will be at 11 am with a service to follow at 12 pm at Bliley's Central Chapel on August 15th. Please continue in prayer and support for the Morris family during their time of grief and loss.

We thank Jacob Giancaterino for playing the organ today while Bob Ford is on vacation.**

Jacob Giancaterino graduated summa cum laude in Piano Performance and magna cum laude in Marketing Management from Virginia Tech. A lover of vocal music, Jacob sang in the Virginia Tech choirs for 3 years and took a semester of Opera Workshop. Since returning to the Richmond area, Jacob has continued his musical studies through organ lessons with Dr. Robert Gallagher and Dr. Bruce Stevens. He has served multiple churches in the area including HRBC as organist, pianist, and bass section leader, while also singing baritone in the Richmond Symphony Chorus. Most recently, Jacob attended an organ academy in Paris, where he studied French Classical and Romantic repertoire with Professors Aude Heurtematte and Christophe Mantoux on historic French organs.

If you missed the August calendar on July 26, please pick one up in the Narthex or at the Welcome Center

THE WORSHIP OF GOD

August 9, 2026, 10:30 am
It's a Beautiful Day at HRBC!

As we continue in this message series, we are reminded that faithfulness is not something we work out alone. In seasons of loss and change, God gives us one another. To care well for one another, we must learn to listen with patience and compassion. As we gather for worship, may we be attentive to God's voice and open to the needs of those around us, trusting that He uses both to shape us in faithfulness.

- God's blessings, Pastor Bob Lee

	Offertory Anthem	"The Majesty and Glory of Your Name"	Fettke/Johnson

When I gaze into the night skies and see the work of Your fingers;
The moon and stars suspended in space.
What is man, that You are mindful of him?
You have given man a crown of glory and honor,
And have made him a little lower than the angels,
You have put him in charge of all creation:
The beasts of the field, The birds of the air, The fish of the sea. But what is man,
Oh, what is man that You are mindful of him?
O Lord, our God, the majesty and glory of Your Name transcends the earth and fills the heavens.
O Lord, our God, little children praise You perfectly, And so would we, and so would we.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
The majesty and glory of Your Name. Alleluia, Alleluia!
The majesty and glory of Your Name. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Part 2 of Faithfulness in Seasons of Loss and Change

Luke 24:13-35 (Pew Bible pg. 749)

13 Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. 14 They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. 15 As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; 16 but they were kept from recognizing him.
17 He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?"
They stood still, their faces downcast. 18 One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?"
19 "What things?" he asked.
"About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. 20 The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; 21 but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel.
And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. 22 In addition, some of our women amazed us. They went to the tomb early this morning 23 but didn't find his body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels, who said he was alive. 24 Then some of our companions went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see Jesus."
25 He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! 26 Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" 27 And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.
28 As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. 29 But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them.
30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him, and he disappeared from their sight. 32 They asked each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" 33 They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together 34 and saying, "It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon." 35 Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Sermon Notes: Listening for What Hurts| Luke 24:13-35

Listen: Where do you see yourself in this story?

The Road You're On:

- What questions are you carrying right now?
- What loss, disappointments or change feels unresolved?

Jesus' First Act: To listen

- Where do you need to be seen and heard?
- Who needs you to slow down and listen?

Question: How can we become a listening community?

This Week's Memory Verse Challenge…

Proverbs 3:5

"Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding."

INTERESTED IN MEMBERSHIP AT HRBC?

We welcome you to explore what it means to be part of our church family. There are several options for membership:
