All Saints' Day

A LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

We offer a holy pause this morning, remembering the sisters and brothers in Christ, who have passed on into God's eternal love.
We give thanks for their lives, lament their death,
and honor their legacy.

In scripture we learn that each time
God remembers God's people, God acts on their behalf.
As we remember these children of God, may we pay homage through our actions:

As we recall those who followed the way of Christ faithfully
May we walk in their example.
Where mistakes were made along the way
May we learn from their experience.
Where love and service of neighbor were generously practiced May we continue their good work.

Thanks be to God that our lives are touched and our story shaped by these individuals, connected to our church family, no longer physically with us, but fully alive in Your love.

With gratitude, we remember:

We remember:

Francis Bailey
Wayne Barden
Martha Bell
Ron Berryman
Shirley Dunn
Rod Hale
Margie Hobson
Betty Joyner
Bobbie Lively
Jim Morris
Norma Sehen
Sue Taylor
Gloria Tayman
Bob Warren
Jean Wills

For the names spoken in this gathering, and others whose names are written on our hearts,
and for the space within us, where joy and grief dwell together,
We ask the peace of Your blessing, O God, and the comfort of Your presence.

With tenacious hope, we trust in God's promise of eternal life, through the resurrection of Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.
