THE WORSHIP OF GOD

October 18, 2026, 10:30 am
Music Appreciation Sunday

Welcome to worship at Huguenot Road Baptist Church – we're glad you're here! We worship a creative Creator – a God who continually seeks new ways to make His love known. As we begin our two-part Art for the Not Yet series, may we open our hearts to God's creativity and dare to imagine new ways to share the Good News, invite others into relationship with Christ, and grow in our own walk with Him. Now, let's prepare our hearts to hear a word from Jesus this morning. – Pastor Bob

Offertory Anthem	"When In Our Music God is Glorified"	Green/Stanford/McDonald

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
When in our music God is glorified, and adoration leaves no room for pride, it is as though the whole creation cried: Alleluia!
How often making music, we have found a new dimension in the world of sound, as worship moved us to a more profound Alleluia.
So has the church in spoken word and song, in faith and love through centuries of wrong, borne witness to the truth in every, every tongue, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise Him with the trumpet; Praise Him with strings; praise Him with cymbal; praise Him with singing; let every thing that has breath praise God!
Let every instrument be tuned for praise! Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always, Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen!

Message "The Creative Heart of God" Rev. Dr. Bob Lee

Part 1 of Art for the Not Yet

John 1:1-18 (pew Bible pg. 750)

[1]In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. [2] He was with God in the beginning. [3] Through Him all things were made; without Him nothing was made that has been made. [4] In Him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. [5] The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

[6] There was a man sent from God whose name was John. [7] He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. [8] He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

[9] The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. [10] He was in the world, and though the world was made through Him, the world did not recognize Him. [11] He came to that which was His own, but His own did not receive Him. [12] Yet to all who did receive Him, to those who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God— [13] children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

[14] The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us. We have seen His glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

[15] (John testified concerning Him. He cried out, saying, "This is the One I spoke about when I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because He was before me.'") [16] Out of His fullness we have all received grace in place of grace already given. [17] For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. [18] No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is Himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made Him known.

Monday Prayer – from St. Patrick's Breastplate

Christ be with me, Christ within me, Christ behind me, Christ before me, Christ beside me, Christ to win me, Christ to comfort and restore me.

Amen.

Sermon Notes: The Creative Heart of God | John 1:1-18

1. Ways God reveals Himself to the world.

2. Ways God speaks to the world.

Reflect: How can I make the invisible God visible?

Apply: What aspect of God do we most need to share with the next generation?

Looking forward to next week...

"The Quiet Labor of Love"

Part 2 of Art for the Not Yet

by Rev. Dr. Bob Lee | Nehemiah 3

Small, faithful beginnings are often unseen. Yet, it's the quiet labor of love that prepares the soil for the fruit of future generations.
